

Alfred Garraffa

Geologist

914.708.0827 | agarraffa@gmail.com | 672 Entrada Dr, Golden, CO 80401

Education

University of Denver: Coding bootcamp	2022
Master's in Science in Geology and Geological Engineering South Dakota School of Mines and Technology	2012
Bachelor's in Science - Geology University of Massachusetts - Amherst	2004

Experience

Operations Geology Manager , Bruin E&P Operating LLC Managed and operated all wells drilled while at Bruin; responsible for well planning, mapping, geosteering, and post well analysis as well as involvement in core analysis and research.	2017-2020
Operations Geologist , Halcon Resources, Denver, CO Responsible for geosteering wells in the Bakken and Three Forks formations. Additionally, analyzing core samples and log interpretation as well as basin development.	2013–2017
Geologist , Oasis Petroleum, Houston, TX Geosteering wells in the Bakken and Three Forks formation and interpreting log data.	2012-2013
Geology Intern , El Paso Energy, Houston, TX Well log correlation and regional seismic mapping of the Cockfield formation in Southern Louisiana.	2010
Geology Intern , USGS, Rapid City, SD Aided in a microgravity study of water recharge in the Madison Aquifer in the Black Hills of South Dakota.	2010-2011
English Teacher , Avalon English Academy, Yongin-Si, South Korea Taught English to students aged 4-13 and created the lesson plan and taught for a writing course to be broadcast online.	2007-2008
Core Analyst , Core Laboratories, Englewood, CO Acquired core from well site as well as drilling and preparing samples. Worked on plug descriptions, P&P analysis under surface and reservoir conditions, fluid saturations via Dean Starks, and sample photos.	2005-2007